PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

2015: A Year of Achievement

I have been so honored to serve once again as president of AAJA-LA. Thank you for devoting your Friday night to our cause. It's always gratifying to see so many of the same familiar faces with us, year in and year out, and we wish your teams the best of luck in the competition.

serve all members, from students to established professionals, while connecting to the larger community in new and creative ways.

Naomi Hayase

We're so thankful for all the years Trivia Bowl was held at ABC7, but excited to be able to continue our signature event and present Trivia Bowl XX at DreamWorks Animation this year. Our entire board is grateful to Denise Poon, who despite having "retired" from Trivia Bowl last year stepped up once again to help when we were facing a last-minute venue change. To all of our guests, once again, thank you for your support of our chapter's many successes and the vital work that AAJA-LA performs.

We started this year with the goal of increasing the number of events accessible to our members and raising scholarship amounts. It was so exciting to see programs like food panels with celebrity chefs, a visit of YouTube Space LA and headshots, all free to AAJA-LA members, come together. I would like to thank the entire board and all of our volunteers for the countless hours of work they have contributed to make this a possibility. We were also able to award $15,000 worth of scholarships to 6 truly exceptional students, twice this year.

In addition, earlier this year, many of you were able to experience our other big annual event, the V3 Digital Media Conference, a showcase of leading Asian and Pacific Islander Americans in digital and social media. V3con, in its fourth year, attracted hundreds of attendees to the Japanese American National Museum in downtown L.A. for an all-day conference of panels and workshops. Because of supporters like you, AAJA-LA has thrived since our founding in 1981 and through 20 Trivia Bowls starting in 1994. We can't do our vital work without you. Once again, we offer our sincere thanks.

TRIVIA BOWL MODERN GAMES FOUNDER'S MESSAGE

Trivia Bowl XX: Brilliance Under the Stars!

Welcome and thank you for being part of our 20th rendition of Trivia Bowl, the AAJA-LA Chapter student scholarship and professional program signature "fun-raising" event.

Over the years, Trivia Bowl has had three homes – the Japanese American Cultural and Community Center, the Japanese American National Museum and ABC7 Studio B.

We appreciate that many of you here tonight are longtime community partners, corporate sponsors and formidable competitors.

Tonight we are thrilled to be guests of DreamWorks Animation on its lovely campus. This is the first time we are gathering outside, under the sparkling stars.

“Speaking of shining brilliance, many of our guests ask, ‘What’s the secret to being a Trivia Bowl winner?’”

– Denise L. Poon

Warm greetings to those of you who are new to our creatively engaging and highly successful event. We guarantee that your participation will provide wonderful insight into AAJA-LA, our mission, membership and programs.

Speaking of shining brilliance, many of our guests ask, “What’s the secret to being a Trivia Bowl winner?”

To quote Po, one of DreamWorks’ most beloved “Kung Fu Panda” characters and Dragon Warrior, champion of the Valley of Peace:

“There is no secret ingredient. It’s just you.”

You are a winner for being here and enthusiastically supporting AAJA-LA and Trivia Bowl XX.

Let the Games begin!

Over the last two decades, Trivia Bowl has transformed from a small community roundup of fewer than 10 teams to a considerably substantial pep rally-meets-“Jeopardy!” competition. In the “Ancient” Games, we gathered in a community rec room, sat at park-bench-like tables and kept the written score on a flip chalkboard.

Our Modern Games include about 40-50 teams, electronic scoring, “real” L.A. County Superior Court judges, six college teams vying for the Grasshopper Cup, the Spirit Award and social media. #AAJATriviaBowl

TRIVIA BOWL RULES

Here's the 411

AAJA-LA developed, abides by and enforces the following International Trivia Bowl Federation competition rules.

2015 Competition

Each team may have as many as 10 members. Once the competition begins, no substitutions are allowed. No one may sit at a team table except its 10 original designated players. Trivia Bowl XX will have five rounds of 15 questions each. The question categories are: 1) current events; 2) more current events; 3) geography, history, science and literature; 4) arts and entertainment; 5) sports and California.

David Ono, the emcee, will read aloud the questions. Sitting at their designated table, the members of each team work together to fill out the answer sheet. The emcee will read each question twice. Competitors are advised to write down the questions for their reference.

The name of the team and its captain must be written on the answer sheet for each round. Failure to write the team name on the answer sheet can result in forfeiture of the entire question round. All answers must be legible and in English unless another language is specified. Answers must be written on the exact line corresponding to the number of the question.

Only one answer per question will be accepted unless more than one answer is clearly requested. When multiple answers are requested, all must be correct for the team to obtain the point. When a person's name is requested, last names are acceptable unless first and last are specified. Phonetic spelling is acceptable unless the correct spelling is specified. There are no partial points for an answer.

Once the emcee has read the 15th and final question of each round, teams have two minutes to complete their answer sheets. Room monitors will collect the sheets from team captains and take them to the judicial bench. Once an answer sheet is submitted, no changes are allowed.

Scoring

After each round, the emcee will read aloud the questions and correct answers after game officials have collected the answer sheets. The judges will review and score the answer sheets during this time. Team scores and standings for each round will be posted on the scoreboard. The team with the highest score at the end of the fifth round wins possession for one year of the coveted perpetual Rice Cup trophy.

Challenges

Any challenges to questions should be brought to the attention of the Quiz Masters by the team captain or a designated representative before the end of the evening competition. The game manager's decision is final. No competitor may speak to the judges or scorekeepers.

Leaving the Team Table

No one who leaves a team table while a round is in progress will be allowed to return until the team submits its answer sheet. Please make all trips to the hospitality table, refreshment area or restroom before or after rounds.

Prohibition on Electronic Devices

The use of all electronic devices (phones, tablets, laptops, PDAs, cameras, video devices, drones, etc.) is strictly prohibited while a competition round is in progress. If any such device is visible, game officials will request that it is put away. Any person who uses such a device must leave the team table and may not return to the game during that round. Game officials have the discretion to deduct as many as 10 points or an entire round from a team's score if any member violates this rule. Texting or tweeting about or livestreaming the event, including but not limited to @AAJATriviaBowl, is permitted only between competition rounds.

Printed Materials

No printed materials other than those provided and sanctioned by Trivia Bowl organizers and sponsors are allowed on the team table. Anyone caught using cheat sheets or notes will be subject to the same penalties regarding the improper use of electronic devices. Purses, bags, backpacks, briefcases and items containing printed materials must be placed on the floor.

Substitutions and Spectators

Team member substitution is prohibited at all times during the competition. Once the competition begins, a team may not replace an original player with another individual. If for any reason a player must leave the event, the team must proceed without that member. Game officials have the discretion to deduct as many as 10 points from a team's score if such violations occur.

During the competition, spectators may be present only in designated areas. Noncompeting spectators (including guests, chaperones and parents) may not stand near or approach the team table while a round is in progress and until the team submits its answer sheet for that round. All communication, oral or otherwise, is prohibited between a team and spectators while a round is in progress. Game officials have the discretion to deduct as many as 10 points for violations.

Tie-Breakers

If any teams are tied for any of the top three places in the overall standings after the end of the final round, "sudden death" will be used as a tiebreaker. The rules will be announced at the start of the competition.

TRIVIA BOWL HISTORY & LORE

Trivia Bowl is the signature team competition fundraiser of the Asian American Journalists Association's Los Angeles Chapter. Since 1994, proceeds from the event have supported the chapter's scholarship, internship, fellowship and professional development programs.

Initially, the game was conceptualized as a low-budget, low-tech local chapter fundraiser. What started as a modest, whimsical effort has evolved into a popular, marquee community "fun-raising" experience. Media groups, corporate sponsors, community partners and now college teams compete to pursue their friendly rivalries and support AAJA-LA.

2006: ABC7's David Ono has been the Trivia Bowl emcee since 2000. Mario Machado emceed the event in the mid- to late 1990s.

In the beginning: Early competitions took place at the Japanese American Cultural & Community Center in Little Tokyo in downtown Los Angeles. The event was the brainchild of AAJA Treasurer Dickson Louie. Chapter leaders were thrilled when the event raised $2,000. Above, the ABC7 team in front of dry-erase scoreboard at JACCC.

1996-2000: Trivia Bowl became an annual event under the leadership of Yet Lock and Richard Fruto, above, celebrating a winning answer as a team member. The competition continued in the JACCC community room but one year was held at the Bonaventure Hotel during Asian Pacific American Heritage Month. The event included as few as five teams in Trivia Bowl III but eight to 11 most years.

2001: Trivia Bowl expanded into the "Modern Games" under the direction of Denise L. Poon, then chapter president, above with Supervisor Michael Antonovich. On AAJA's 20th anniversary, organizers emphasized more community participation and sponsorship, with volunteer Los Angeles County Superior Court bench officers as game judges. The event more than quadrupled, when 43 teams competed in Trivia Bowl VII.

2002: Trivia Bowl moved to the beautiful Japanese American National Museum in Little Tokyo. The museum has served as host in most non-anniversary years, six times to date, with 22 teams typically filling the marble-walled George & Sakaye Aratani Central Hall to capacity. Above, Susan Hirasuna and John Beard work on their FOX 11 LA team answer sheet.
